ERICK CALZADO

LONDON
PRODUCT DESIGNER

Enthusiastically passionate young design professional, looking to increase my skills and experience within the design industry. I embrace a challenge and I hold up well under pressure. I find the whole design process extremely enjoyable. Conceptually I am very creative and have fresh ideas, constantly thinking of design solutions to everyday problems. I'm quick to adapt to new working environments and I enjoy meeting new people. check out my new website for my new lighting range inspired by the natural world
